Wilmington Update

WILMINGTON, MA - Textron Systems Corporation, a Textron Inc. company, announced in August that it received a five-year contract from the U.S. Army Contracting Command valued up to $353,980,000

The contract is to produce the XM204 Top Attack Munition, an anti-vehicle terrain shaping system, and associated trainers. The XM204 precision anti-vehicle capability supports modernization of the Army's terrain shaping and counter-mobility capabilities.
